The Procurement Office
Procurement Law Office | Procurement Advisory Office

Trade Treaty Intrigues: Dealing with the Tariff Threat

By Paul Emanuelli

Procurement Law Office

1. Introduction: Are Tariffs the New Pandemic?

Defending Canada from Trump's Tariff Firewall

2. Holding the Line on Good Governance Against Tariff Threats

Newsreel Update

Federal Audits Expose Widespread Irregularities

Audits Reveal Problematic Provincial Procurements

Municipal Audits Target Local Procurement

Establishing Proper Approval Protocols

3. Barriers to Barring US Suppliers

Avoiding Canadian and Local Preferences (CETA, CFTA, TCAQO, NWPTA etc.)

Local Preference White Paper (Historical Example from Archive)

Political Interference in the Bidding Process (Summary Archive Article)

Political Interference in Public Procurement (Detailed Archive Slides 2014)

Identifying US Suppliers

Supply Chains Complexities (US Suppliers vs US Supply Chain)

Operational Reliance on US Suppliers and Supplies (Supply Chain Assessment)

4. Tariff Threats Trigger Pricing Pressures: Revisiting the Pandemic Analysis

Securing the Tendering Cycle (Pandemic Case Study)